

Accelerating transformation in health care with technology innovation

At Optum Serve, we are dedicated to strengthening and developing the health information and technology solutions for federal agencies to help modernize the U.S. health system. Our solutions are distinguished by innovation, quality and vast health care industry experience. They are designed to improve the experiences and outcomes for everyone we serve.

Our unique IT experience in healthcare includes:

Data management

- Data governance
- Master data management
- Database administration
- Data modeling and analytics

Innovation lab

- Human-centered design
- Solution assessment
- Demos and proofs of concept
- Research and development

System integration

- Program management
- Quality management
- Communications and outreach

IT modernization

- Enterprise and cloud application
- DevSecOps
- Cloud migration
- SaaS/PaaS/IaaS

Software application engineering

- Systems development
- Application testing
- Independent verification and validation
- Operations and maintenance
- System architecture

Security

- Fedramp, FISMA and NIST
- Pen testing and hardening
- Security assessments
- Authority to operate

As the federal health services business of Optum and UnitedHealth Group, Optum Serve offers federal agencies the robust health IT solutions that have proven successful at one of the largest health care organizations in the world – UnitedHealth Group. Our unrivaled health care knowledge combined with our end-to-end technology allows us to be a unique and reliable partner.

